Frank Peloso, Vice Principal

The class of '78, dedicates this yearbook to Frank Peloso, Vice-Principal extraordinaire. Mr. Peloso answered our needs for solutions with personal problems as well as guidance with educational problems. His official duties of maintaining decorum, coordinating school activities, and general office manager did not interrupt his constant interest in the well being of us students. We shall always remember Mr. Peloso as our friend.

SPECIAL TIMES

by Gladys Soto

In the back of our minds we shall store away,
The moments we had in school from day to day.
But, when we need to remember they shall be there.
Like some teachers we had who always cared.

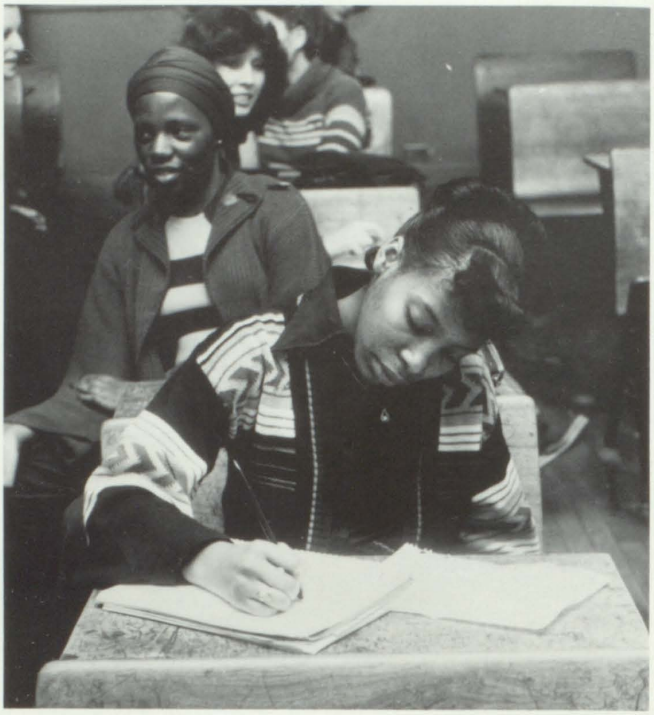

Even these are quite rare like the moments we shared.

[illegible] give us pep,
And the teachings of life in step by step.
Remember our plans and all those dreams,
Everything's even harder than now it seems
Remember those friends who promised to write,
Many years have gone by and they're still in sight.

Even these are quite rare like the moments we shared . . .
